LOCAL GIRL TO ATTEND Y-TEEN CONFERENCE

Miss Judy Wolf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don B. Wolf of 21804 Halldale avenue, was selected to represent the Torrance Y-Tens at the National Y-Teen conference to be held in Washington, D. C. and New York City on November 11 through the 17.

Miss Wolf will attend the Annual National World Fellowship service at the Washington cathedral, tour the capitol, study various government departments and celebrate the 75th Anniversary of the Y-Teens. On November 15, the whole conference group will entrain for New York City where they will visit the United Nations' building, hear briefings and hold a work shop on bringing the conference information home. There will also be shopping and a Broadway show.

A senior at Narbonne high school, Miss Wolf, is the Y-Teen president of the Beta Tri-Y. She is the vice president of the student body and the ex-chief justice of the student

PTA MEMBERSHIP DRIVE ENDS

With a 95% total enrollment, the 259TH Place School membership drive ended last week. Winner for the upper grades was Mrs. Shuler's fourth grade. Prize for the most men's memberships went to Mr. Mann, fifth grade.

In the lower grades, Mrs. Meadows third grade came in first and the most men's membership award went to Mr. Wright's second grade. Mrs. Rouzie's kindergarten was highest.

Soroptimists Attend 2 Day Conference

President Margaret Neff, Edna Walther and Frances Stephan, of the Soroptimist International of Torrance and Gardena club represented the club at the two day Biennial parley held at the Beverly-Wilshire hotel on October 19 and 20. The theme was "Soroptimists; Powerful Potential for Peace and Progress."

Mrs. Emily N. Ziegler of San Diego, president of the American Federation of Soroptimist International was the keynote speaker. She outlined the service projects in the Western hemisphere, ranging from service to children to help for the aged. The educational, corrective, and recreational services are beneficial to individuals, communities, and other nations.

"All we do in Soroptimist," said Mrs. Ziegler, "is based upon the foundation of spiritual values: 'Love thy neighbor as thyself.'"
